Yutoku Inari Shrine 祐徳稲荷神社

The Yutoku Inari Shrine is one of the three most famous shrines dedicated to Inari. Over three million people visit the shrine every year to pray for good business, good fortune for their families, a large catch, traffic safety and other matters. It consists of the Gohonden, the Okaguraden, the gate, and other magnificent buildings, which are lacquered and colored gorgeously; it is called Nikko Toshogu Shrine in Kyushu. It is also famous a film location recently.

Japanese Garden 日本庭園
There is a Japanese style garden including a small flowing brook and a pond with a bridge. A variety of flowers are bloomed all year round, and the leaves in autumn are also beautiful. You can take a leisurely walk here as you enjoy the seasons.

Omikuji (Fortune Slips) おみくじ
"Omikuji" contain predictions about your fortune (boon or bane) as well as advice. They are available in (five) foreign languages.

Japanese sake (rice wine) 日本酒
Kashima sake is "rich" and "sweet." It is known for its strong flavor that fills your mouth. Kashima sake is highly praised both domestically and abroad as the best sake in World.

Inari Yohkan (Sweet Bean Jelly) 稲荷ようかん
You eat it by pushing up on the bottom of the tube filled with sweet bean jelly, which causes the jelly to come out of the other end, and then using a piece of string to cut the jelly into the size you want.

Yuzu-kosho 柚子こしょう
Redpeppers chili spice which has a flavor of citron. It's good for steak.

Carp Dishes 鯉料理
Koi-no-arai "carp sasimi" and Koi-koku "carp miso soup" are traditional dishes which are good for beauty and health.
